afford moral support, but not physical aid, to races struggling for that governmental outcoming which we enjoy under the compact of the States. And withal, he will have that personal magnetism and that hold upon the affections which will make them swift to follow him as the legions of France followed the plume of Navarro. We do not indicate in advance who he will be. He may be the gailant leader of 1884, whose presence was an inspiration and whose clarion voice rang out along the lines, whom we followed to defeat but not to disgrace, who in private life has suffered no loss of respect and who still remains a Republican of Republicans, an American of Americans. He may be fin honored son of New-York, whose fame as an cratter has penetrated every corner of the land, but whose brilliant gifts of speech are collipsed in comparison by his generous scholarship, his accurate knowledge of practical afairs, his undoubted capacity for statesmapship, his robust patriotism and his unfinching courage in the enunciation of American sentitioning courage in the enunciation of American sentitioning accurate knowledge of product a minimum and his un-pacity for statesmankly, his robust patriotism and his un-finching courage in the enunctation of American senti-ment as strikingly illustrated in his recent rebuke of an English professor who had wantonly assailed Americana. The nominee may be one of these, or he may be a son of consists when that expanding empire whose free soil rears free men and educates statesmen in the school of leyalty, the West of Rusk and Alger, of Gresham and Allison, of Harrison and Sherman. But whoever he is, he will receive the cordial and united support of the ubiteans of New-York.

THE COMMITTEES APPOINTED. Mr. Fitch's speech ended, the convention ap pointed a Committee on Organization, with ex-Congressman Sereno E. Payne, of Auburn, as chairman; a Committee on Resolutions, with George Bliss, of New-York, as chairman, and a Committee or Credentials, with Clarence W. Meade, of New-York, as chairman. That on credentials had only one contest to settle, namely, in regard to the delegates of the Ist Assembly District of Albany County, whose seats were contested. After investigation the committee awarded the certificates of election to the sitting delegates. The Committee of Organization bad presented to them for permanent chairman the names of Speaker Fremont Cole, General James W. Husted, General N. M. Curtis and ex-Senator Edmund L. Pitts. A compromise was finally made upon ex-Senator Pitts. m., and the committees met in the interval.

INSISTING ON A BRIEF PLATFORM. The Committee on Resolutions had a serious time, as Elliott F. Shepard had prepared a large number of planks for presentation to the committee, all bearing upon State or National politics, but the committee resolved as soon as it met that it would exclude from the platform all reference to State or National politics, with the exception of William D. McKinstry, editor of "The Water-town Times," moved that a plank should be put in the platform approving the action of the Repub-lican Legislature in passing the High-license bill and the Liectoral Reform bill. Assemblyman Sax-ton vigorously supported this plank, but George Bliss opposed it, sæjing that if National polities were to be avoided in the platform, so should State polities. A high-license plank could be put in the platform at the Republican State conven-tion to be held this fall. Mr. McKinstry's plank was therefore rejected by a vote of 17 to 8. The committee then adjourned. nmittee then adjourned.

EX-SENATOR PITTS PERMANENT CHAIRMAN. Most of the delegates went driving about Buffalo the committee were at work and many were late in returning to Music Hall. Business were late in returning to Music Hall. Eusiness did not begin again in the State convention until nearly 5 p. m. It then went along at a rapid rate. Ex-Congressman Sereno E. Payne stated that the Committee on Organization had selected ex-Senator Edmund L. Pitts, of Medina County, as permanent chairman. Mr. Pitts is popular, and the announcement was received with applause. Mr. Pitts was conducted to the chair by Speaker Cole and Stewart L. Woodford. Upon taking the chair he said, Gentlemen of the Convention: For this very dis tinguished honor, accept my thanks. No lengthy speech is desired or expected and I shall not tax you with one, if I could add anything to what has already been But in this crisis of this Nation, your action is of momentous importance, and I believe the battle is half won. If all past blekerings are buried here, we shall in November snatch from power the great acci-deut of 1884. The humblest knows the Administration of Cleveland has not redeemed a single promise of his campaign. We know every man who wore the Union blue has been harshly treated by Executive vetoes. The pauper labor of the old world has been invited to invade American homes. The State Administration needs short notice, for all its virtues can be summed in few lines. If we all go home touching clows, we shall win a victory such as placed Lincoln in the place where Washington sat.

Ex-Congressman Burleigh, in behalf of the Com-Ex-Congressman Burleigh, in behalf of the Committee on Credentials, reported that the committee recommended the admission of the delegates from the lst Assembly District of Albany County. The report was adopted. George Eliss then presented the resolution which had been drawn up by the Committee on Resolutions as a substitute for a platform. He said that the committee at the outset had decided that it would be wisest to confine the platform merely to a denunciation of the Mills Tariff bill and a pledge of New-York's support to the nominees of the Republican National Convention. The convention would soon meet, and would supply the party with a platform on National topics. As for State matters, they could be dealt with in a platform which would be passed by a Republican State Convention this fall.

THE PLATFORM AS ADOPTED.

THE PLATFORM AS ADOPTED. Mr. Bliss then read to the convention the following preamble and resolutions, and the document was adopted unanimously by the convention : The Republicans of New-York in convention assem-bled, certain that the National convention at Chicago present candidates for President and Vice-Presi whose devotion to American ideas and to the protection of labor, agriculture and manufactures will command the approval of the people, piedge to the Re-publican standard-bearers in the National contest their united and resions support, and enter upon the canvass niident of victory.

Resolved, That all questions relating to the policy of esolved. That all questions relating to the policy of Republican party as to the National and State policy eferred to the Republican National and State con-tons respectively to be held during the present year, esolved. That we approve the action of the Republicen members of Congress in opposing the Mills tarifi bill, so-called, and we urge them to persevere in defeating every device intended to place upon the statute book the free trade theories of Mr. Cleveland's annual message. of free trade theories of Mr. Cleveland's samual message.

Mr. Aldridge, State Committeeman, of Rochester, then presented the following, which was Whereas, By the death of Roscoe Conking the Republi-carty has lest one of its most brilliant and intropid one of its most disinguished citizens, and the cause of human rights one of its mose eminent defenders, therefore Resolved. That we deeply deplore his untimely death, and his deeds and memory are a priceless legacy, and will ever be an inspiration to the statesman and patriot.

These resolutions were presented by General Husted:

Husted:

Resolved, That in all cases where the Congressional district Presidential electors have been regularly chosen, such action shall be approved, and that in all other cases the district electors are to be elected by the next State Convention, and that in case of a contest arising in any district, the State Committee be and is, and is hereby authorized and empowered to adjust the same. Resolved, That the names of the district electors already chosen be reported forthwith to the chairman of this Convention.

The following was then adorted on motion of this Convention.

The following was then adopted on motion of Colonel George Bliss:
Resolved, That in 1892, and every year thereafter in which Presidents are elected, the district electors be selected by the delegates from the respective districts elected to the State Convention last preceding the election.

CHOOSING THE DELEGATES AT-LARGE. Now came the important movement in the life of the convention. James M. Varnum, of New-York, moved that the convention should proceed to the election of four delegates at large. He said that the New-York delegates had intended to press Levi P. Morton for delegate-at-large. They press Levi P. Morton for delegate-at-large. They did so because they considered Chauncey M. Depew as much the choice of the State at large as of New-York city. Mr. Morton, therefore, would be the only local candidate. They had not pressed Mr. Morton out of hostility to Mr. Hiscock, and Mr. Morton on hearing that there was a little friction in the convention over the matter, and that it might cause dissension, had sent a telegram declaring that he was not a candidate for delegate-at-large. He then read to the convention the telegram he had received from Mr. Morton.

"I apprehend," said George Bliss," that there is no considerable difference among us as to whom we desire to send to Chicago. I therefore move that Frank Hiscock. Warner Miller, Chauncey M. Depew and Thomas C. Platt be declared the choice of this convention for delegate-at-large to the National Republican Convention." Applause followed this speech, and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote. Chairman Pitts then declared formally that Messrs. Hiscock. Miller, Depew and Platt had been elected delegate-at-large.

Senator George Z. Erwin, of St. Lawrence County, moved that the alternates should be ex-Senator James Arkell, of Canadioharie; David A. Baldwin, of Brooklyn; Senator John Raines of Canandaigua; and ex-Senator John Raines of Canandaigua; and ex-Senator Paniel H. McMillan, of Buffalo. The motion was adopted by a unanimous vote. Then followed the selection of a new Republican State Committee. The following were elected:

to State or National politics, with the exception of a brief attack upon the Mills Tariff bill. Mr. Shepard's planks, therefore, were ruthlessly thrown into the fire. He finally moved that a plank should be put in the platform instructing the New-York delegation to vote for the nomination of Chauncey M. Depew for President. There was a general protest against the adoption of the resolution, on the ground that it had been agreed that instructions saould not be given in favor of any Republican named for the Presidency. It was the spirit of the convention, said ex-Congressman Sackett, of Saratoga, that the delegates of New-York should go to the National Convention uninstructed for any candidate. There was a murmur of assent 19 this proposition and Mr. Shepard's plank was rejected without taking a vote upon it. General Joseph B. Carr. of Troy, said that "by request," he would offer a resolution providing that the New-York delegation at Chicago should "vote as a unit." This plank was rejected by a vote of 25 to 4.

> DELEGATES CHOSEN TO CHICAGO. Crookston, Minn., May 16 .- The Vth District Repub dean Convention elected as delegates to Chicago Halver Stevenson, of Crookston, and Charles L. Lowis, of Otter Tail. Both are for Gresham.

Owatonna, Minn., May 16.—The Republican Conven tion for the 1st District elected as delegates to Chicago James O'Brien, of Houston, and George B. Edgerton, of Dodge, with Oscar Ayres, of Mower, and A. J. Green of Wabash, alternates. The resolutions demand that lumber, sait and sugar be placed on the free list, and compliment Blaine without instructing for him.

Minneapolis, May 16 .- The IVth District Republican Convention selected as delegates to Chicago R.B.Langdon and W. J. Freaney, instructing them for Blaine, if he is a candidate. Mr. Langdon's personal preferences are said to be for Alger and Mr. Freaney's for Gresham.

Mankato, Minn., May 16 .- The Republicans of the Hd District elected as delegates to Chicago M. N. Leland, of Wells, and H. J. Miller, editor of "The Luverne Herald." Leland is for Blaine first and Gresham second : Miller for Gresham.

Litchfield, Minn., May 16.-The HIId District Repubcan Convention elected as delegates to Chicago M. S. Chandler, of Goodhue, and Peter Johnson, of Meeker. The latter favors Blaine, Chandler expresses no choice. The resolutions favor a material reduction of the tariff.

Santa Fe, N. M., May 16,-The Republican Territorial Convention to choose delegates to the Republican National Convention was held here yesterday. Thomas B. Catron, of Sante Fe, and Francisco Chavez, of Valencis, wore chosen as delegates, and Colonel Ryner-son nominated for National Committeeman. The deleson nominated for National Committeeman. The dele-gates are understood to favor Allison, of Iowa, for President.

Joliet, Ill., May 16.—Henry Mayo, of Ottawa, I. E. Bennett, of Plano, were chosen delegates to Republican National Convention, yesterday.

NERRASKA REPUBLICANS FOR PROTECTION. Omaha, Neb., May 16.-The platform adopted by the Republican State Convention arraigns the Democratic party for its failure to keep its promises made in its platform in 1884, for failure to reduce the surplus and to make the necessary 'expenditure for public improvements, for the effort now making to tear down the American system of protection, fostered and built up by the Republican party. The Mills bill is denounced and the Democrats are condemned for making no attempt to put down the corporate trusts; and the President for his action in the matter of the Rebel flags. The platform pledges protection te every citizen at home and abroad, to man and farmers, commends the State Board of Railroad Commissioners for its efforts to obtain for Nebraska the same rates as are accorded the neighboring States. Liberal pensions to the disabled and needy veterans of the Union army are recommended. Sectional issues and the keeping alive of the hatreds of the civil war are reprehended and denounced. John M. Thurs-ton, Patrick Egan, George W. Heist and R. A. Nerval were elected delegates to the Chicago Convention. They are uninstructed, but favor Blaine.

The only evidence of Presidential preference shown in the convention was during the discussion of the motion to proceed to the election of four delegatesat-large. Mr. Brewster, of Blaine County, obtained the floor. When he announced his name and said that he hailed from the newly organized county of Blaine, he was interrupted with deafening shouts and cheers.

"Yes," he said, "I not only come from one of the "Yes," he said, "I not only come from one of the youngest and best counties in Nebraska, but that county has the honor of being named after the next President of the United States."

Another shout of approval greeted Mr. Brewster's centiments. Thurston is a strong Blaine man. Egan is a strong admirer of Blaine also but does not commit himself; Novall is for Blaine, and Hist is non-committal. If Blaine's name is presented all the Nebraska delegates, however, will be for him.

ALABAMA'S REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. Montgomery, Ala., May 16 .- At the Republican Con vention to-day the following State ticket was nominated: W. T. Ewing, Governor; J. J. Woodall, Secretary of State; S. T. Fowler, Treasurer; R. S. Heffin, Clark, Superintendent of Education. Resolutions were adopted condemning Cleveland's message and the Mills bill, indorsing the Blair bill, favoring the abolition of the Internal Revenue system. The convention was balloting for delegates at late hour.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN MISSOURI. DELEGATES-AT-LARGE CHOSEN AND A STATE TICKET

NOMINATED. Sedalia, Mo., May 16 (Special).-At last night's secana, Mo., May 10 (special).—At less agains assisting of the Republican State Convention, the following were elected delegates-at-large to the Chicago Convention: Chauncey L. Filley, St. Louis; D. P. Dyer, St. Louis; William Warner, Kansas City; James H. Pelham (colored) Hannibal, Mo. The delegates were not instructed, although a resolution complimentary to General John B. Henderson was adopted.

When the convention was called to order this morning the business of electing two electors-at-large was begun. The ballet resulted in the choice of William H. Farmsbie, of DeKalb, and "Pony" Boyd, of Spring-

The unanimous report of the Committee on Resolutions was read. The report resolved that monopolies should be restrained; denounced the frauds on the should be restrained; denounced the frauds on the ballot box in the South; that taxation be brought to the lowest limit; that the revision of the tariff be made with a view of protecting the home interests, and not of placing wool, lead and zinc on the free list, which is a blow to Missouri's interests; that the Union sol-diers are entitled to relief for disabled veterans and that the reason veters should be condemned; that that the pension vetoes should be condemned; that the convention condemn the abolition of the State Board of Immigration, and that the Democratic admin istration be condemned for failing to provide for the relief of litigants in the overcrowded Supreme Court. The report was adopted unanimously. The absence of a Prohibition plant was not even remarked in the convention.

S. N. Brechenridge, of St. Louis, was nominated for Governor and withdrawn. Mr. Filley nominated E. E. Kimball, of Veron County, and the nomination was made unanimous. George H. Wallace, of Howard County, a wool man, received the nomination for Lieutenant-Governon, F. W. Mott, of St. Louis, was selected for secretary of State; A. P. Frowein, of Henry County, was nominated for Treasurer; George W. Martin. of Linn County, for Auditor; Captain L. Bridge, of Sedalla, for Attorney-General; John H. Chase, of Iron County, Register of Lands; B. W. Vedder, of Sedalia, Labor Commissioner, and James Batslord, of Kansas City, Judge of the Supreme Batsford, of Kansas City, Juege of the Supreme Court.

E. E. Kimball, the nominee for Governor, is a lawyer. He has been Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. In July, 1861, he enlisted at Springfield, Mo., as a private under General Lyon, took part in the battle of Wilson's Creek, and Joined in the retreat to Rolla. After that he served under the quartermaster until 1862, and subsequently enlisted as a private in Company G. of the 189th New-York Volunteers. He was assigned to the Second Brigade, First Division, of the Fifth Army Corps, served until after the surrender of Lee and was discharged at Elmira, N. Y., in June, 1865.

THE WEST VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

NO INSTRUCTIONS, BUT THE SCAMELTY PAVOR BLAINE-GOFF NAMED FOR VICE-PRESIDENT. Fairmont, W. Va., May 16 (Special).-The State Republican Convention for the selection of four delegates and four alternates to the Chicago Convention was held here to-day. John W. Mason, of Grafton, mem-ber of the National Committee, was the permanent chairman. The convention was the largest and most ing represented and over 600 delegates being in attend ance. Strong resolutions in favor of a Protective Tariff were adopted, including the following: "We challenge the wisdom of the present Administration in recommending, through its chosen head, the abolition or radical reduction of the tariff on coal, wool, salt and lumber, classed as raw material, four of West Virginia's principal products." In recognition of his ability and valuable services Nathan Goff, the distinguished Representative in Congress from the Ist District, was recommended to the National Convention as a candidate for Vice-President. After the trans-action of the usual routine business the following were chosen as delegates-at-large to the National Conven tion; John Frew, of Wheeling; Ralph L. Berkshire. of Morgantown; Thomas B. Swann, of Charleston, and Charles B. Smith, of Parlersburg; alternates: L. M. Wade, Charles F. Teter, T. D. Elliott and Henry C. Flesher. Earlier in the day the Hd District Conven tion elected John Miller, of Keyser, and M. W. Curtin, of Grafton, as delegates, and T. F. Lanham and G. W. Feldt as alternates. The above named, together with the following delegates previously chosen from the 1st, Hid and IVth Districts, constitute West Virginia's representatives at Chicago: Ist District, William P. Hubberd, of Wheeling, and Alexander C. Moure, of Charksburg; Hid District, John Cooper, of Pocahontus, and the Rev. C. H. Payne, colored, of Coal Valley, IVth District, A. B. White, of Parkersburg, and J. J. Peterson, of Huntington. While the sentiment was decidedly for Blaine, no instructions were given, but it is understood that should Bisine's rame be presented at Chicago the entire delegation will support him. As second choice Sherman will have a majority of the delegates. Feidt as alternates. The above named, together with

MINNESOTA IN FAVOR OF GRESHAM. READY TO SUPPORT BLAINE IF HE SHOULD BE A

CANDIDATZ. . St. Paul, May 16 (Special).—The temper of the State Convention held here to tay was Blaine first and Gresham next, but the Gresham sentiment seemed uch the stronger. The enthusiasm over him was ever surpassed in a State convention in Minn even in the days when Blaine was a hot favorite. The four delegates-at-large elected to-day are for Blaine if there is a chance of his nomination, because they think the sentiment of the Republicans of the State is for him, but they are undivided in their second choice Unless there are good assurances that Blaine is a willing candidate before the convention, they will vote and work for Gresham. Those who are for Blaine for first choice are not clamorously enthusiastic for him and will not be much disappointed if he is not un for their votes. The district delegates are for resham almost to a man. The situation to-day, therefore, is that Minnesota has elected nine out o urteen delegates whose votes will be for Gresham first and the entire fourteen will be for him if Plain is not in the race. The only fight in the convention oday was upon ex-Congressman Washburne, of whimeapolis, and he was defeated because he had expressed himself as being against Gresham in any even prossed filmself as being against Gresham in any event. The convention did not propose to take any chances and refused to allow any man on the delegation who had expressed hostilities toward Gresham.

The fact that the convention did not pass any resolution of instruction was not due to any lack of strength on the part of the Gresham men, but it has been tacitly conceded that the delegates would not be instructed for any candidates, and this understanding was respected by the Gresham men to-day.

A striking feature of the convention was the prominence of the young element of the party.

was respected by the Gresham men to-day.

A striking feature of the convention was the prominence of the young element of the party. The four delegates at large are all young men. All the delegates at large are for Gresham as first choice with the exception of Hartley, of Duluth. He says that he feels that he ought to vote for Blaine first, but that as the sentiment of the State is for Gresham he will vote for him. Senator Edwards says he is convinced by the demonstration in the convention to-day that Minnesota Republicans want Gresham and the will yote for him. Heatwood and Dayis decline to he will vote fer him. Heatwole and Davis decline to state openly that they are fer Gresham, but it is given out on the authority of their friends that they will vote for Gresham first. It may be set down that 12 out of the 14 del gates from this State are for Gresham, and that the other two will doubtloss go with them.

THEY ARE FOR BLAINE IF NECESSARY Pueblo, Col., May 16 (Special) .- At the Republican Convent on held here to-day, the following delegates to Chicago were elected: Messrs. Donaldson, Hammill, Howbert, Henderson, Wingare and O. R. Wolcott. They are for Blaine if necessary.

THE MARYLAND REPUBLICANS TO MEET TO-DAY. Baltimore, May 16 (Special). The State Republication which meets at Easton, Talbot County, tomorrow will be attended by a large number of pernot delegates from all parts of the State, and especially from Baltimore City. Among those from the city may be named W. W. Johnson, Leon Sellger, George T. Braggs, J. Reese Pritcher, General Adam E. King, A. V. Stevens, James H. Ward, W. T. Henderson, W. F. Airey, John Krohmille, James A. Garey, Hart E. Halton, Wesley M. Oler, Louis Hecheimer, Francis M. Darby and many others. General Adam E. King Walter B. Brooks, who was the Republican candidate for Governor last year; Thomas Gorsuch and ex-State Senator William D. Burchinal will probably be elected delegates-at-large. Of the sixteen delegates to Chicago including the four just named, at least fourteen will be for Biaine, although they will go uninstructed. The platform will declare strongly for protection and high license. The permanent president will be ex-State Senator Thomas H. Hedson.

A REPUBLICAN UNJUSTLY ACCUSED.

Indianapolis, May 16 (Special).-After Judge Woods had delivered his charge in the election conspiracy case against seven of "Sim" Coy's political associates this afternoon, the indictment against General James R. Carnahan, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, charging him with having issued instructions to election inspectors in violation of law, was called up by the District-Attorney and dismissed from the docket, as there was no evidence to sustain the charge. The case has been referred to by Democratic politicians as an offset to the indictments against Coy and his associates for altering taily sheets. The jury is now deliberating upon a verdict against seven of the latter.

EX-GOVERNOR PORTER MISREPRESENTED. Indianapolis, May 16 (Special) .- Ex-Governor Porter returned to-day from Kansas City, where he was credited with having said in an interview that Judge Gresham was his preference for the Presidency, a statement that has occasioned much comment among Auditor; G. H. Craig, Attorney-General, and J. M. politicians, because Mr. Porter is one of the delegates-at-large from Indiana to the National Convention. He denies that he made any such statement, and says that the entire interview is a fabrication, as he talked with no reporter while away from home.

WAS IT A WATERLOO FOR THE GOVERNOR? MR. HILL'S FRIENDS NOT CAST DOWN-EDWARD

COOPER A POSSIBLE CANDIDATE. If David B. Hill had been sent to St. Louis as a delegate-at-large instead of losing that honor by an overwheining majority, his friends could not have been in better spirits than they were yesterday. Not a trace of grief or disappointment was visible on their countenances. All was joy, hope and confi-dence. That spontaneous outburst in favor of the Governor at the evening session of the convention had healed all the wounds inflicted by the Administration, raised their drooping spirits and infused new life into them. They laughed at the idea of the Gov ernor's political death, declared he was the liveliest kind of corpse and predicted that he would be re-nominated "by acclamation" by the State Convention in August. Judge Muller looked like a new man. He felt, he aid, that the convention was true to Hill, but feared that the Cleveland managers would prevent the mention of his name. His views were re-echoed by many others, namely, that the Administration went too far. As one gentleman put it: "It was all right for them to knock Hill down and jump on him. That is polities, I suppose. But when they undertook to lead im out of the Democratic party because a few mug wumps are 'sore on him' they made a mistake. They went too far, as they found out."

The activity of Grace and Cooper against Hill is generally understood. Cooper really wants to be Governor. Grace pretends he wants to succeed Hill. but of course this is a more dodge. He wants the Mayor's office again and he is going to make a strong fight for it, despite the way he was hissed by the delegates. Mr. Grace was not at his office when a reporter called yesterday. His friends are highly indignant at the anonymous attack made upon him and secretary Whitney in the pamphiets distributed among the delegates, and some of them say that it was these publications that stirred up the members of the con vention against Mr. Grace.

Some of the delegates went home on Tuesday night. but most of them were unable to tear themselves away from the attractions of the metropolis until yesterday morning, when they departed on the early trains Albany, May 16 (Special) .- The Governor's right hand man, William F. Shechan, of Buffalo, returned here from the convention at New-York, and was closeted to-day with his chief in the Executive hamber for over an hour. The young leader looked as though he had been through a month's illness, and he seemed to dread appearing before his master. He had charge of the Governor's Presidential boom. All that he would say was that it was a great convention. The Governor takes his defeat as only a shrewd and wily politician can. He persists in saying that he did not want to go to St. Louis at all.

REPUBLICANS AHEAD AT MOUNT VERNON. DEMOCRATIC BRAGGARIS CONFOUNDED-THE NEW BLOOD TOLD.

The village election at Mount Vernon on Tuesday was the most exciting that had ever been held, and the Democrats came out of it badly plucked. They had made their boasts that they intended to take every thing and the Hickey-Lawlor-Quackenbush combination selected the most respectable of their party as candidates in the hope of deceiving the voters. To make their scheme more complete they hired carriages to bring indifferent voters to the polls, and distrib uted pasters, cigars and dollars with a generous hand the latter being most effective in West Mount Vernon. Their auxiety was due to the fact that hundreds of thousands of deliars are to be expended in the building of the new sewers, and that they could not hope for a convenient treasury nor a "divvy" with the contractors with the Republicans to oppose them.

The Democratic candidate for president of the village, David Quackenbush, the "Cleveland Reform" postmaster, ex-supervisor, etc., whose sole business spolitics, was elected by only 78 majority over John F. Luther, a gentleman, a business man and a Republican; while John Berry, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, had 175 majority. On the other hand, Isace A. Farrington, Republican, was elected police justice by 200 majority. The Republicans also elected three of the five trustees—William J. Fee, Edward A. Howiand, and Samuel Bernstein, so that the next board will stand seven Republicans and three Democrats. It was a Republican victory, and as the increase of new-comers is composed principally of men of intelligence and education the Republicans will continue to gain strength. FISE INDORSED FOR PRESIDENT, AND THE RE PUBLICAN PARTY SINGLED OUT FOR ABUSE. Grand Rapids, Mich., May 16 (Special).-A. B. Cheney, of Sparta, was chairman of the State Prohibition Convention held in this city to-day. A. O. Crozier, of this city, who delivered the welcoming address, aimed his remarks mainly at the Republican party, claiming that the Republican Legislature had passed the Local Option law as a conciliatory measure to hold the prohibition vote in the rural districts and still maintain good standing with the whiskey element in the large cities. Crozier was loudly ap-

This afternoon the Rev. John Russell, of Milto father of the Prohibition party; first vice-presidential candidate Professor Samuel Dickle, of Albion, chairman of the National Committee, and Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Jackson, were chosen delegates-at-large by acclamation; and A. O. Crozier, of this city, and Alfred Wise, of Lansing, were candidates for fourth place. On the second ballot Wise was elected by one majority. Crozier's friends yelled fraud, and denanded a new count, but the chairman refused listen to their remonstrance. Alternates at large, district and provisional delegates and alternates, to the number of over eighty, were chosen.

Albert Dodge, of Fowlerville, was chosen chairman of the Central Committee, and W. W. Wise, of Lansing, secretary. Resolutions were adopted ex pressing loyalty and devotion to the cause, and opposition to every form of regulatory legislation; con demning the temporizing, incongruous, and partly unconstitutional legislation on the liquor question er acted by the last Legislature, and the truckling, stu pidity, and moral blindness that marked its working, causing it to fritter away a golden opportunity to thoroughly outlaw the dram-shop system; and further declaring that the constitutional amendment was lost through that the constitutional amendment was lost through the perfidy of those who, under the guise of friend-ship, pursued it to its death for fear of disrupting the Republican party. The resolutions express unaiterable opposition to local option as the final settled policy of the State, because it is a failure wherever applied; nothing but absolute prohibition in the entire State and Nation will be satisfactory. They in derse the candidacy of General Clinion B. Fish, of New-Jersey for the Presidency, and express esteem for Professor Dickle. To night addresses were made to an immense audience by Professor Dickle, Mr. Lathrop, the Rev. Mr. Russell and others. Opposition to the Republican party and local option, and the glorious prospects of the Prohibition cause, formed the burden of their remarks. Either A. E. Cheney, of Sparta, or J. L. Hudson, a wealthy Detroit clother, will be the candidate for Governor this fall. The Prohibitionists poiled 25, 600 votes two years ago, and expect this year to capture 30,000 or 40,000 for their State ficket. PLATFORM OF THE MAINE PROHIBITIONISTS. Portland, Me., May 10.—The Prohibition State Co-vention to-day chose, as delegates to the National Covention, W. W. Perry, of Camden; U. D. Crane, of Newcastle. Alternates, J. F. Hall, of Knox; P. H. Oliver, of Bath. The platform and resolutions unantmously adopted, affirm that traffic in alcoholic irinks endangers public morals and safety, and is a fruitful source of corruption in politics; that lice laws perpetuate this traffic and are wrong in principle; that prohibition as a State and National policy is the true method of procedure against the saloon; that pro hibition is a national issue, and must be championed by a national party; that both the Democratic and Repu lican parties have neither the disposition nor ability to everthrow the saleon; that the shameful trading of these parties with the rum vote in Maine proves that neither can be trusted to enforce the liquor laws; that the last municipal election in Portland shows the readiness of the Republican party to make a disgraceful readiness of the Republican party to make a disgraceful alliance with the grog-shop to win success, and demonstrates that a prohibition party is needed in Maine; that the entire separation of the Government from the liquor traffic requires the abolition of the internal revenue tax on liquor; that the present tariff should be revised in order to cheapen the necessities of life, and that it can beat be revised by a commission; that the corrupt use of money in elections deserves the emphatic condemnation of civilized people.

The platform also indoress the Australian system of secret voting and approves the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Ohio, May 16 (Special).-The Democratic State Convention held to-day was a peculiar affair, because every candidate proposed was nominated for the place he wanted or another less in honor. The decorations of the hall were Democratic. Pictures of Tilden, Ewing, Vallandigham and Hancock were on the walls, and Cleveland smiled down from the ladies' balcony. The attendance of delegates was small and of visitors less, as Barnum's circus more than divided honors. Henry Bohl called the meeting to order, and in his speech announced that Ohio was committed to Democratic principles and revenue reform. For the first time in years an Ohio Democratic convention was opened with prayer. General "Sam." Hunt, of Cin-tinnati, as president, made the most brilliant speech of the day, and an early reference to Cleveland caused the delegates to cheer loudly. Ex-Congressman Me-Mahon, of Dayton, read the platform. It begins by demanding Cloyeland's renomination, and says: We approve the Mills Tariff bill as the practical ex-pression of the Democratic party, and request our Repre-ntatives in Congress to give it cordial support. Then follows the usual platitudes.

When the first puragraph was read the applause was great, and every delegate jumped to his feet yelling. By a preconcerted arrangement the band began to play merrily, and a curtain dropped showing Cleveland's picture over the stage as Oblo's choice. Other feat ures of the platform were unnoticed. A delegate yelled: "Hurrah! for Fannie Cleveland," and a colored delegate remonstrated, saying: "Mrs. Frances." This licket was nominated by acclamation:

For Secretary of State, Boston G. Young, of Marion County; for Supreme Court Judge, L. J. Critchfield, of Holmes County; for Member of the Canal Board, James K. Emmit, of Pike County. Emmit was no nated because of his expected large contribution. is a distiller. Young and Critchfield are both lawyers.
As predicted, the "Big Four" slate for delegates-at-large was put through on the first ballot as follows Calvin S. Brice, of Allen County; T. E. Powell, Franklin County; Charles W. Baker, of Hamelton County; L. E. Holden, of Cuyahoga County. led the list with 555 votes, Powell being next with 535. Free-Traders Hurd, General Finley, M. D. Harter, Leo H. Bert and W. W. Elisberry were defeated for delegates. Hurd had 272, a surprise considering his many defeats. Hurd, Harter, Finley and Bert were then made alternates. During the balloting for delegates one county gave Thurman nine votes, although he had telegatabed early that he could not be a delegate. Brice's victory was largely due to "Bon" Le Fevre, who came here from New York. Telegrams of thanks from Brice came in plentifully when the results had been sent him in New-York. All four were chosen at the wish of Senator Payne. It was the most orderly convention of the party for years, because everything was fixed up in New-York and Washington and the instructions obeyed. 535. Free-Traders Hurd, General Finley, M. D. Har years ago, but has maintained his legal residence in Lima, Ohio, was greatly pleased yesterday by a dis patch announcing his election as a delegate at-large by the Ohio Democratic Convention. His friends tele-graphed also that he would be the head of the Ohio delegation at St. Louis. Colonel Brice is a strong Cleveland man.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS FOR CLEVELAND. SENATOR DANIELS, JOHN S. BARBOUR, R. C. MAR-SHALL AND PHIL M'KINNEY ARE THE DELE-

Norfolk, Va., May 16 (Special),-The Democratic State Convention to elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention met here to-day. The convention was called to order by Senator John W. Barbour, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and the nanent organization was formed with Speaker R. M. Cardwell, of the House of Delegates, in the chair Senator Harbour made a short address asking that he be allowed to retire from the chairmanship of State Committee, but the convention re-elected him. John S. Barbour, Senator J. W. Daniel, R. C. Marshall, of Portsmouth, and Philip W. McKinney, of Farmville were elected delegates at large to St. Louis, and Colonel R. F. Beirne, Editor of "The Richmond State," Judge John T. Harris, of Shenandoah, were elected electors-at-large. Governor Fitzhugh Lee entered the hall amid much enthusiasm. He made a lengthy speech devoting his remarks principally to the debt question.

The Committee on Resolutions were out for five hours and had much difficulty in forming a set of resolutions, there being a disposition to introduce a plank for the repeal of the Internal Revenue system. The resolutions affirm that it is The resolutions after that it is a dury due to the people to reduce taxation, to restore the surplus to the business of the country; they induse Clevyland's Administration and that of Governor Lee, and declare that the ascendancy of Republicanism in Virginja would threaten every interest and embroil the State in conflict of classes and races.

STRIFE AND WAR AMONG THE LABOR MEN SCENES OF DISORDER AT THE MCGLYNN CON-VENTION-GEORGE'S THEORIES REJECTED.

Cincinnati, May 16 (Special).-There is no fusion today between the Union Labor forces and United Labor people under the lead of Dr. McGlynn. Not that the latter were not willing, but because the former, by a decided majority, rejected the single land-tax theory of Henry George, to which the followers of McGlynn are thoroughly wedded. The Union Labor Convention has been in session all day, its proceedings being very, tedious. When the report of the Committee on Conference with the United Labor party presented their report, which was an indorsement of the George theory in a disguised form, it caused considerable confusion, ut the convention by a decided majority referred the report to the Committee on Resolutions, Committee on Resolutions submitted the platform there was merry was all along the line. The preamble which was adopted was not satisfactory to the Greenback element, which was strong in the convention. Next came the most exciting episode of the convention. It was decided to consider the platform plank by plank. The first proposition was that upon land. A delegate from Michigan, Fogg, submitted the George single land-tax plank, and a wrangle ensued that caused the contax plank, and a wrangle ensued that caused the convention and every one in it to lose track of the proceedings. Finally debate was stifled and the Georgeites were sat down upon. Thereupon the United Labor men who were present in the gallery withdrew, as did a number of the Union Labor delegates, who however, said they would support the nominee. The United Labor men are considerably demoralized to-night, and at 9 o'clock had not reassembled, pursuant to an adjournment until 7 o'clock. Resolutions were submitted that the surplus should be returned to the people, either by taking up outstanding bonds of by being paid to them pro 1244. paid to them pro rata.

DEMOCRATIC WOLVES IN A PROBLETION FOLD. Springfield, Ill., May 16 (Special) .- In the convention of Prohibitionists this morning a sensation was caused during the election of district delegates by several charges being made as to polities of nominees, one being openly denounced as a Democrat and a substitute for his name being demanded. It appears that about a dozen disciples of Democratic faith had secured representation in the convention who were really furthering the ends of Democracy, and up to the time of the election of district delegat convention had been their willing tool. The delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Imdianapolis on May 30 are Miss Frances E. Willard, James S. Lamont, Hale Johnson and James B. Hobbs.

They are understood to be solid for Pisk for President, but divided as to second place between John A. Brooks, of St. Louis, and George Christian, of Cook County.
A colonel in the Confederate Army, Captain D. C. Hart, captured the convention, but it is now concoded that Bigline had it. The above-named delegates declared themof Logan County, was nominated for Governor. Greet-ings were sent to the United Labor Convention in Cincinnati assuring them that as they indorsed the prohibition movement they would receive the hearty co-operation of the party of this State. One resolution was to the effect that habitual drunkards and persons convicted of giving or receiving bribes, should disfranchised.

PLANS FOR THE STATE CAMP. VARIOUS IMPROVEMENTS MADE.

EIGHT WEEKS IN THE TENTS THIS YEAR-LIST OF THE LUCKY COMPANIES.

The season approaches when the National Guards man betakes himself to the tented field, when the drygoods clerk begins to thing of engaging board at some secluded farm-house, and the funny man points his pencil to ladelg; his seedy satire on that long-suf-fering hero, the Jersey "akoeter." Already the tanguied dude is talking about his intentions for hot summer months and repeating a lot of inane twaddle about his last year's exploits, and everybody is looking forward to the day when he or she will hie them to the woods, the mountains or the sea shore. The yachtsman, brave amateur child of Neptune, dreams of leaving the shore and going for a deep-sea cruise. Cups of all kinds, including those known as "claret" and "champague," play a prominent part in his vision, but chief of all is the America's Cup, with regard to which his heart beats, not with apprehension but with emulous gice. Though the Scotch build a centre-to man their craft, he thinks the cup is safe. The cancelst, too, is looking forward to paddling his own cance. He will explore picturesque coves which the prow of no other "cove's" cance had ever entered, and already in the dead of night he is poring over his charts and mapping out his course with a fervor and enterprise which would have become Columbus or Cabot had they understood the art of canoeing. The camp meetings at Mortha's Vineyard, Ocean Grove and Cape May, as well as the great Temperance Encampment of Mars's Sons near Peekskill will soon be in full feather. No doubt there will be, as usual, many casual meetings in these arenas of piety and mirth which will result in permanent homesteads a few months later.

A BIG TEMPERANCE GATHERING. A BIG TEMPERANCE GATHERING.
Of course there are no politics in the National Guard, but it is certain that the rum party got "left" when the rules which govern the State Camp of Instruction were formulated. "No rum" is written there so that he who runs may read. And yet some people doubt that the rule is enforced. Last year a jolly fellow from Brooklyn went to the camp to see some of the boys. He was not much of a sceptic in most particulars, and, in fact, it did not require much scepticism to make one doubt that there was any place in New-York where men dwelt that spirituous and mait liquors could not be had. He doubted. He never smiled so broadly nor winked so peculiarly as when told that it was an actual fact that no cheering beverages were permitted in or near the camp. He would bet that he, the jolly man from Brooklyn could obtain beer and bring it in. The bet was taken and the attempt made, with the result that the jolly man was captured by the outposts on his return after dark and locked up in the guard-house over night. Since then he is fully persuaded that the rule is enforced.

The National Guardsman as a rule, is cheerful, happy and contented when in camp; but the traditional growler sometimes strikes a discordant note even in that peaceful Peekskill vale. He finds fault with the bill of fare and the cookery provided by the State, and is sometimes reminded by his own relatives that he has not been accustomed to faring so well at home. It has been noted by officers who have given attention to the subject that men who are used to luxury at home are rarely known to complain about the privations of camp life. Officers and men fare precisely alike at the State Camp. The bill of fare and the culinary arrangements have been improved from year to year, and a still further advance in the right direction will be noticed during the present season.

SOME WELCOME ALTERATIONS.

The military road from Roa Hook has been macadamized by Contractor 3. B. Healy, and will not present the swampy and impassable aspect it did in weather last year. The heavy retaining wall along the cutting will be finished by the end of May. The system of drainage pipes for the camp ground has been completed, so that no matter how heavy the fall of rain may be, it can be carried off in a few minutes by the well-arranged network of pipes, and delay or inconvenience cannot arise from this cause as in forme scasons. The parade ground will be about 200 feet longer than it was last year, the cutting into the Point of Rocks having been extended nearly up to the old stone wall, and the earth taken out used to fill in ravines on the southeast side. The encampment will be continued for eight weeks this year instead of seven as heretofore. The first full regiment to occupy the camp will be the 14th, from June 16 to 23. During the same period Separate from June 16 to 23.
